AAUW ADVANCES EQUITY FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS THROUGH ADVOCACY, EDUCATION AND RESEARCH

AAUW GARDEN TOUR 2009

The 2009 AAUW Garden Tour is almost here! Enjoy two days of garden viewing pleasure Friday, May 8, and Saturday, May 9, from 10:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. each day.

On the west side of Danville you will enjoy a "Hillside Garden" with two streams and thirteen waterfalls. The "California Working Garden" features 450 grapevines, an extensive fruit orchard, vegetable beds and lavender plants. And the "Mediterranean Villa" is surrounded by hundreds of oak trees with a grand view of Mt. Diablo.

On the east side of Alamo you will experience a "Serene Haven" of interwoven landscape and hardscape; it is tidy, elegant, manicured and yet relaxed and welcoming. The "Rocks in the Redwoods" opens onto a view of a pool with a luxuriant waterfall. And, surprise, there is a slice of tropical splendor lurking behind the "Alamo Jungle" garden.

Horses graze in pastures on surrounding hillsides of the "Park-Like Country Garden" on the east side of Danville. The owners use their garden to produce much of their own fruit and vegetables. And, see a "Colorful Woodland" in north Alamo with a mix of plants of highly vibrant texture and hue.

Tell everyone you know about this opportunity to view eight exceptional gardens in Alamo and Danville. Tickets are only $30 if postmarked by Saturday, May 2; they are $35 thereafter. Tickets for seniors aged 65+ are $25 throughout the tour. Mail a check payable to "Danville-Alamo AAUW EF" with a business-size, self-addressed, stamped envelope to AAUW Garden Tour, 400 Cliffside Dr, Danville, CA 94526.

All proceeds benefit AAUW's Educational Foundation (EF) which supports aspiring female scholars through grants and fellowships. Call your EF Co-Vice-Presidents Mary Mix at 831-1784 or Connie Cady at 743-0517 with any questions. We hope to see you at the tour!

Garden Tour Help Welcomed: Yes! We can use your help staffing our Garden Tour. Can you serve as an attendant at one of the gardens? Can you attend the event with all of your friends?! Your help and participation would be immensely appreciated. Please contact your EF Co-Vice-Presidents, Connie Cady, (925) 743-0517, ccady@nccc.org or Mary Mix, (925) 831-1784, memix@sbcglobal.net with the wonderful news that you can help!

*Connie Cady and Mary Mix
Educational Foundation Co-Vice Presidents*

Refreshments Needed for Garden Tour: We need a lot of donations of bite-sized goodies for the refreshment stop on the Garden Tour! If you have not already volunteered to bring baked goods, fruit or cheese cubes, please get in touch with Kerry Montalvo at: akmontalvo@comcast.net or 406-4071. Choose between bringing your goodies on Friday or Saturday morning of the tour on May 8 or 9. Bring your donation in a disposable container and please have everything cut to finger-food size and ready to go to 22 St. Andrews Place, Alamo. Thank you for helping make the tour such a special event!

JoAnne Dahlin and Kerry Montalvo

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

*Tena Gallagher,
President*

So much is happening or has happened recently, my head is spinning. Our annual meeting was a luncheon held on April 21 where 40 attended this successful event. After the election of officers (see Page 4), endorsement of School District Measure C, and a short discussion on the proposed AAUW bylaws change making anyone eligible to become a member of AAUW, Penny Warner thoroughly entertained us with her stories. Thanks goes to Barbara Critchlow for allowing us to use the community room in The Mercer.

Our May 28 evening program will feature Budd MacKenzie, founder of Trust in Education (TIE), a grass-root, non-profit organization founded in May, 2003, to provide health care, education and economic development programs in Afghanistan. This meeting is open to the public so bring your friends while we hear about what one organization is doing to help the fifth poorest country in the world.

Our local scholarship committee, including Margaret Batesole, Jeanne Chiodo, Phyllis Clark, Kathie Hixon and Barbara Welch, has reviewed the applications and awarded scholarships to nine women. We hope to see them at our installation party on Tuesday, June 9. Funds for Local Scholarship were raised at our Holiday Home Tour in December where we all worked so hard.

Speaking of working hard, I hope that each one of you has called Connie Cady at 743-0517 to volunteer for one of the shifts on Friday, May 8, or Saturday, May 9, for our ninth Garden Tour. Mary Mix has found eight gorgeous gardens for us to roam through and be inspired. Each one of them shines! Invite your friends to join you for the day that you are not volunteering and make it a real treat.

Tickets are available at East Bay Flower Company at 206 Sycamore Rd. in the Livery.

With our Garden Tour being on the second Friday, my monthly coffee is changed for May to May 15. Join me and other members at Basil Street Café in the Livery. This is my last coffee as president so come and share.

Marian Bliss and Kathie Hixon, incoming co-presidents and Mary Mix, incoming co-president-elect, attended the state convention this past weekend in San Diego. Going to a convention makes you very aware of all of the various endeavors that AAUW does. The 2010 state convention will be in San Ramon at the Marriott so many of us will be able to attend it without having transportation or hotel costs. Mark your calendars for April, 2010.

One of my top privileges during my two years as branch president was when we received the award for being the eighth highest branch contributor to the Educational Foundation (EF) nationally out of 1000 branches. EF provided $4.5 million in funding in more than 250 fellowships, grants, and special awards to outstanding women during this past academic year. Due to the generous contributions of AAUW members across the U.S., a broader community of women continues to gain access to educational and economic opportunities so that all women have a fair chance. Pat yourself on your shoulder!!!

OKTOBERFEST COMMITTEES FORMING

This coming season marks the 40th anniversary of Danville-Alamo AAUW. We will celebrate this momentous event at an Oktoberfest on October 10, 2009. We have the location, we have the date, and we have selected the time. Now we need you! Do you have a special talent you would like to share? Are you a new member and would like to meet others? Will you have summer withdrawals from AAUW activities? Then, we have something for you. Committees are forming and we are recruiting! We need people to help with decorations, set-up and take-down, advertising, ticket sales, and more. Please contact your Oktoberfest co-chairs, Kathie Hixon at 838-8632 or kathiehixon@comcast.net, or Cheryl Kohleriter at 820-6158 or cherylkohleriter@yahoo.com with the good news that you will be able to help.

INSPIRING AND VERY TIMELY: HOW ONE MAN MAKES A DIFFERENCE

Lafayette resident Budd MacKenzie founded the non-profit Trust in Education (TIE) to deliver aid to Afghanistan and fund schools for girls. Learn what inspired him to embark on a mission to help people in a war zone and use his own money to fly to Afghanistan to deliver aid. The news keeps coming from Afghanistan and much of it is bad. Learn what a difference one man can make. A primary goal of Trust in Education (TIE) is to enable villagers to support themselves without depending on others.

Budd is an excellent speaker and has many photos to show us. I still remember the photos showing a stunning change in body language after the girls had been in school for a while. He will be bringing photos and stories from his April trip to help distribute donated rice.

Note the special date and time! Dessert, coffee and tea will be served

Date: Thursday, May 28, at 7:15 P.M.

Place: Shadow Hills Cabana, 1001 El Capitan Dr., Danville

GREAT DECISIONS

The Great Decisions book group will continue the exploration of foreign affairs for the rest of the year. In April we read articles from Foreign Affairs magazine and an article entitled Challenges for the New President from the Foreign Policy Association (creator of Great Decisions).

Future Meetings: Wednesday, June 10, at 1 P.M. at the home of Karen Campbell. We will discuss the Post-American World by Fareed Zakaria. Please RSVP to Karen at kaycee605@aol.com or 736-6727.

August 19. Immigration discussion. We are looking for a book and/or a series of articles that will provide balanced viewpoints of this on-going issue. Contact Gus Slavin at slavinfamily@hotmail.com if you have any suggestions.

Our discussions are always lively. Come join us to discuss pressing issues of the day. Contact Gus Slavin at slavinfamily@hotmail.com or 736-8399 for more information.

Gus Slavin and Roseann Krane

Great Decisions will meet throughout the summer to continue discussion of foreign affairs topics.

Jane Trittipio Scholarship Fund. If you would like to make a donation to the Jane Trittipio Scholarship Fund please send a check, made payable to Danville-Alamo AAUW, to Jacque Schubert at 108 Lackland Ct., Alamo, 94507. The third annual Jane Trittipio Scholarship will be awarded at our scholarship evening on June 9. Jane, a former branch president (1996-97), community activist for outreach in health and science achievements, and author, is honored for her role model to other women in similar fields of study. So far we have given scholarships in Jane's name to a medical student and a nursing student.

NOTICE FROM THE AAUW CA PUBLIC POLICY COMMITTEE MARCH 30, 2009

Regarding the May 19, 2009, California Special Election. The State of California just dealt with a deficit of $40 billion.

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) has been a staunch supporter of education and public health measures for 126 years. Our nearly 14,000 members in California sympathize with those who protest proposed cuts. The budget reductions spared few, if any, departments, programs or services. At the same time the budget also depends on significant tax increases.

The March 2008 AAUW CA statement regarding the budget deficit battle urged "a balanced approach of revenue increase and expenditure reduction geared to maintaining a safety net of vital government services". We wanted to:

- Protect the basic education and human services infrastructure.
- Maintain all health and safety standards.
- Equitably distribute funding cuts.
- Seriously assess the options for tax and fee increases.

We believe the budget proposals are the best we can expect in this difficult time. AAUW members are asked to take a deep breath and vote yes for the budget items 1-A, 1-B, 1-C, 1-D, 1-E, and 1-F on the May 19 special election ballot. To read the ballot measures, go to www.sos.ca.gov and click on ballot measures.

HIKING GROUP

On May 30 the hiking group will hike to Inspiration Point in Tilden Park. We will meet at the Sycamore Park and Ride @ 8:30 for carpooling. Bring water, trail snack and $ for carpool driver. This is a flat, very moderate hike. It is about 3 miles round trip. You can bring a walking stick, wear comfortable shoes and bring sun screen. We should see some late Spring flowers. The views of the City are spectacular. We will be back in Danville by 12:00. Please let Kathie Hixon know if you will be joining the group. kathiehixon@comcast.net

ART AND GARDEN

Art & Garden Interest Group will be taking a City Guides Walking Tour of Nob Hill on Friday, May 22. We'll hear architectural tidbits and anecdotes about a great cathedral, four prestigious hotels, and a most exclusive men's club - elegance, urbanity, and fabulous views. We'll also learn the history of the pre-earthquake rococo palaces and mansions of the old railroad and silver kings. After the tour, we can take some additional time exploring Grace Cathedral and then have lunch nearby. We can either take the cable car up to Nob Hill or walk up, as the tour starts at the top of the hill at the Stanford Court Hotel. We'll meet at 9:30 A.M. at either the Sycamore Park and Ride or the Alamo Safeway Plaza and BART into the city. The tour costs $10.00/person and is non-refundable. Also, space is limited. Please contact Jacquie Schubert, at 855-7002, or jacqueschubert@comcast.net for further information.

Jacquie Schubert, Section Leader

PUBLIC POLICY

The Obama administration announced guidelines for government sponsored embryonic stem cell research but would limit federal funding of work on human embryos donated at fertility clinics. Guidelines issued by the National Institutes of Health create opportunities for an expansion of research but forbid scientists to create human embryos for research or the pursuit of cloning techniques. The new regulations are the result of President Obama's lifting restrictions that had limited federal research to a few embryonic stem cell lines. New money will pay for hundreds of such stem cell lines that had been unavailable for the past eight years. Researchers have praised the potential of embryonic stem cells in treating illnesses because of their ability to morph into any tissue in the body. Such stem cells could potentially lead to treatments for spinal cord injuries, Diabetes and Parkinson's disease. What is not clear from research so far is whether adult stem cells will ever have the same transformative capabilities as the embryonic cells. The guidelines also detail how scientists must secure written permission from embryo donors because donation is only permitted if made voluntarily, and without compensation.

The Associated Press announced that the Michigan High School Athletic Association agreed to pay the Group Communities for Equity up to $6 million in legal fees after the latter won a landmark case for girls' sports calendars in the state. The case began in 1998 when parents filed a lawsuit arguing girls' unusual sports schedule violated state and federal law. In 2001, a US district court judge ruled MSSHA practice discriminated against girls in violation of Title IX, the 14th Amendment to the Constitution, and a Michigan civil rights act because the girls' season was two to three weeks shorter than those of girls everywhere else in the country, and of boys' seasons. AAUW supports gender equality compliance in public school athletic programs. Title IX's impact on women's sports is one of the country's greatest success stories.

Once again, please urge your senators to support the Paycheck Fairness Act (S 182), a much needed update of the 45- year-old Equal Pay Act. This will be a perfect complement to the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act signed into law this year.

Cynthia Savell, Public Policy

LOCAL SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Nine outstanding applicants will be receiving local scholarships of $1250 each. They are: Kirsten Brown, Sarah Brunskill, Katie Gallagher, Allison Gervis, Lyda Ghambari, Kellie Langewisch, Sandy Lin, Stephanie Varvitsiotes, and Shannon Wagner. Look for a discussion of these outstanding winners in the June issue of The Advocate.
